Our aboriginal artwork based designs

All of our designs are digital artwork created from an original aboriginal artwork. These artworks are specifically created to use in our shirts, jackets, hoodie designs, so we own the complete right of these artwork. It is a great news for our customers, you don't have to seek permission from your local aboriginal committee. We have story based and some non-story based designs. Designs are customizable and we can put any totem in any colours as you need to match your school colours.

Some of our circles based designs define kids, their bonding and unity. There were meeting places showing in some designs which is present in schools. Our designs haven't been made based on specific aboriginal community, so it will be totally ok for you to use them for any your school.
